

GRE Vocabulary

HARD

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
1	Abet (v.)	To help or encourage someone to do something, especially something wrong or illegal	Aid, assist	Deter, discourage	She was arrested for abetting the criminals.
2	Abstruse (adj.)	Difficult to understand	Cryptic, complex	Clear, straightforward	The professor's lecture on quantum physics was so abstruse that most students couldn't follow.
3	Acolyte (n.)	A person who follows and assists a leader or important person	Follower, assistant	Leader, master	The acolyte faithfully carried out the instructions of the renowned artist.
4	Acquisitive (adj.)	Excessively interested in acquiring money or material things, greedy	Avaricious, covetous	Generous, content	His acquisitive nature drove him to accumulate wealth at any cost.
5	Acuity (n.)	Ability to see, hear, or think clearly	Sharpness, precision	Dullness, ignorance	Her acuity of vision allowed her to spot even the tiniest details.
6	Acumen (n.)	Ability to make good decisions in a particular domain	Insight, expertise	Ineptness, ignorance	His business acumen helped him succeed in the competitive market.
7	Agrarian (adj.)	Relating to farming, agricultural	Rural, country	Urban, industrial	The agrarian community relied on farming for their livelihood.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
8	Alacrity (n.)	Speed and eagerness	Enthusiasm, willingness	Apathy, reluctance	She accepted the challenging task with alacrity.
9	Amalgam (n.)	A mixture in which the distinct elements are not lost	Blend, fusion	Separation, division	The cultural amalgam in the city created a rich and diverse environment.
10	Amalgamate (v.)	To combine into a single entity, to integrate	Merge, unite	Divide, separate	The two companies decided to amalgamate their resources for a stronger market presence.
11	Amity (n.)	A friendly relationship	Friendship, harmony	Enmity, hostility	The amity between the neighboring countries led to peaceful coexistence.
12	Anachronism (n.)	A person or thing placed in the wrong time period (in film, books, etc.); something that is appropriate to an earlier period in history	Fossil, relic	Contemporary, modern	The use of a typewriter in the digital age seems like an anachronism.
13	Anachronistic (adj.)	Belonging to a period other than the one portrayed; appropriate to an earlier period in history	Outdated, outmoded	Contemporary, modern	His anachronistic fashion sense made him stand out in the crowd.
14	Analogous (adj.)	Comparable, similar	Similar, akin	Different, dissimilar	The behavior of the two species was analogous in many ways.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
15	Analogue (n.)	Something that is similar or comparable to something else	Equivalent, parallel	Original, prototype	The old vinyl records were the analogue of today's digital music files.
16	Animus (n.)	A strong feeling of hate or anger	Hostility, enmity	Affection, goodwill	His animus towards his former business partner was evident in his actions.
17	Antedate (v.)	To precede in time, to predate	Precede, predate	Follow, postdate	The historical records antedate the invention of the printing press.
18	Apostate (n.)	A person who abandons a religion, political party, cause, etc.	Renegade, deserter	Believer, loyalist	He was labeled an apostate for leaving the political party he once supported.
19	Approbation (n.)	Approval, praise	Endorsement, commendation	Disapproval, criticism	The author received widespread approbation for her latest novel.
20	Apropos (adj.)	Relevant or appropriate to a particular situation, discussion, etc.	Pertinent, suitable	Irrelevant, incongruous	His comment was surprisingly apropos during the heated debate.
21	Arcane (adj.)	Known or understood by few people, secret and mysterious	Obscure, enigmatic	Transparent, clear	The arcane rituals of the secret society were closely guarded.
22	Archetype (n.)	An original model or perfect example of something	Prototype, model	Atypical, deviation	The character of the hero in the story is considered the archetype of bravery.
23	Artful (adj.)	Clever or skillful, especially in a dishonest way	Crafty, cunning	Honest, straightforward	His artful manipulation of the facts deceived many.
24	Artless (adj.)	Honest and natural; without skill	Simple, guileless	Crafty, deceitful	Her artless demeanor charmed everyone she met.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
25	Ascetic (adj.)	Harshly self-denying of pleasures; harshly simple and without comforts or pleasures	Austerity, austere	Indulgent, luxurious	The ascetic monk lived a life of extreme self-discipline.
26	Assiduous (adj.)	Careful and persistent	Diligent, industrious	Neglectful, careless	His assiduous study habits paid off with top grades.
27	Astringent (adj.)	Sharply acidic or bitter (lit. or fig.); harshly critical in a clever way	Stern, stringent	Mild, gentle	Her astringent critique of the book left the author disheartened.
28	Augur (v.)	To be a sign of something to come	Predict, foretell	Conceal, obscure	The dark clouds augur a storm on the horizon.
29	Avarice (n.)	Greed	Covetousness, acquisitiveness	Generosity, contentment	His avarice for wealth led to unethical business practices.
30	Aver (v.)	To state that something is true	Affirm, assert	Deny, contradict	She averred her innocence in the face of the accusations.
31	Blithe (adj.)	Happy and carefree	Joyful, cheerful	Sad, somber	Her blithe laughter filled the room with happiness.
32	Bridle (n.)	A restraint (v.) To restrain or keep in check	Control, curb	Release, let go	It's important to bridle your emotions in a professional setting.
33	Brook (v.)	To put up with or tolerate, especially opposition	Endure, tolerate	Reject, resist	He couldn't brook the constant criticism from his colleagues.
34	Bucolic (adj.)	Pleasantly rural or relating to the countryside	Rural, rustic	Urban, metropolitan	The bucolic landscape was a welcome escape from city life.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
35	Buoy (v.)	To support, uplift; to raise the spirits of	Elevate, encourage	Depress, dishearten	His words of encouragement buoyed her during a difficult time.
36	Byzantine (adj.)	Excessively complicated; involving devious and secretive methods	Complex, intricate	Simple, straightforward	The bureaucratic process was so byzantine that it frustrated many.
37	Cacophony (n.)	A loud and unpleasant mix of sounds	Discord, noise	Harmony, tranquility	The cacophony of the city streets can be overwhelming at times.
38	Cajole (v.)	To persuade, especially by flattery	Coax, sweet-talk	Deter, dissuade	She managed to cajole her boss into granting her a day off.
39	Canonize (v.)	To regard as among the most accomplished and important works (of literature, etc.)	Deify, glorify	Denigrate, criticize	The author's work was eventually canonized as a classic of modern literature.
40	Canon (n.)	Works (of literature, etc.) generally regarded as the most accomplished and important	Classics, masterpieces	Obscure, unknown	Shakespeare's plays are considered part of the literary canon.
41	Capitulate (v.)	To surrender	Yield, give in	Resist, refuse	The general decided to capitulate when the situation became dire.
42	Castigate (v.)	To scold severely	Reprimand, chastise	Praise, commend	The teacher castigated the student for his disruptive behavior.
43	Cathartic (adj.)	Emotionally relieving	Cleansing, purging	Upsetting, distressing	Writing in her journal was a cathartic experience for her.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
44	Catharsis	An emotional release that results in a feeling of relief	Purging, cleansing	Bottling up, suppression	Her catharsis came when she finally confronted her past trauma.
45	Catholic (adj.)	Including many different things, all-encompassing	Universal, comprehensive	Limited, narrow	The library has a catholic selection of books to cater to various interests.
46	Cavalier (adj.)	Showing no concern for important matters, dismissive	Carefree, nonchalant	Serious, concerned	His cavalier attitude towards his responsibilities led to problems at work.
47	Censure (v.)	To officially express strong disapproval of (n.) Strong official disapproval	Condemn, criticize	Praise, approval	The committee decided to censure the politician for his unethical conduct.
48	Chary (adj.)	Cautious	Wary, hesitant	Reckless, careless	She was chary of sharing her personal information with strangers.
49	Chicanery (n.)	Trickery, especially in politics or finance	Deception, fraud	Honesty, transparency	The chicanery of the corrupt politicians was exposed in the investigation.
50	Churlish (adj.)	Rude and unfriendly	Discourteous, surly	Polite, amiable	His churlish behavior made it difficult to work with him.
51	Cipher (n.)	A code, a disguised way of writing	Code, secret	Clarity, revelation	The message was written in a cipher that only a few could decipher.
52	Circumlocution (n.)	The use of more words than needed, especially when being deliberately vague; saying things in a roundabout way	Verbosity, evasiveness	Conciseness, directness	His circumlocution in answering the question made it hard to understand his point.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
53	Cloying (adj.)	Sickeningly sweet or sentimental	Saccharine, overly sweet	Refreshing, unsentimental	The cloying romantic gestures in the movie made some viewers cringe.
54	Comity (n.)	Friendliness and courteous behavior	Harmony, civility	Conflict, hostility	The comity among team members contributed to their success.
55	Corollary (n.)	Something that naturally follows from something else; a natural result	Consequence, result	Antecedent, precursor	Increased investment is often a corollary of economic growth.
56	Coterie (n.)	A small group of people unified by a common interest or purpose	Circle, clique	Unaffiliated, unconnected	The coterie of artists often gathered to discuss their work.
57	Craven (adj.)	Very cowardly	Timid, fearful	Courageous, brave	His craven response to the challenge disappointed his friends.
58	Credence (n.)	Acceptance of something as true; plausibility, credibility	Belief, trust	Skepticism, doubt	The evidence provided strong credence to the witness's testimony.
59	Dalliance (n.)	A brief, casual involvement with something or a relationship with someone	Fling, affair	Commitment, serious relationship	Their dalliance was a short-lived romance during the summer.
60	Debar (v.)	To prohibit or ban	Exclude, forbid	Allow, permit	The school decided to debar students from using cellphones during exams.
61	Demur (v.)	To object	Protest, dispute	Accept, agree	He did not demur when asked to take on additional responsibilities.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
62	Demure (adj.)	Reserved and modest	Modest, shy	Bold, immodest	Her demure demeanor made her stand out in the lively party.
63	Desultory (adj.)	Lacking a plan, purpose, or serious effort; aimless or random	Haphazard, erratic	Purposeful, focused	The desultory conversation covered a wide range of unrelated topics.
64	Dilettante (n.)	A person who takes up an activity or interest in a superficial way; an amateur	Amateur, hobbyist	Expert, professional	He dabbled in various art forms but was considered a dilettante in the art world.
65	Disparate (adj.)	Essentially different; distinct	Diverse, dissimilar	Similar, uniform	The two cultures had disparate customs and traditions.
66	Dissident (n.)	A person who opposes official policy, especially in an authoritarian state	Rebel, protester	Supporter, conformist	The dissidents bravely spoke out against the oppressive regime.
67	Diurnal (adj.)	Relating to or occurring during the day	Daytime, daylight	Nocturnal, nighttime	Some animals are diurnal, while others are nocturnal.
68	Doctrinaire (adj.)	Seeking to impose a doctrine in all circumstances without regard to practical considerations	Dogmatic, inflexible	Pragmatic, flexible	His doctrinaire approach to politics alienated many potential supporters.
69	Dogged (adj.)	Stubbornly determined and persistent	Tenacious, resolute	Indecisive, yielding	Her dogged pursuit of the truth led to important discoveries.
70	Dross (n.)	Something regarded as worthless or impure	Waste, rubbish	Treasure, valuables	His writing was filled with dross that needed to be edited out.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
71	Dubious (adj.)	Hesitating or doubting	Uncertain, skeptical	Certain, confident	Her dubious expression made it clear that she didn't trust his explanation.
72	Duress (n.)	Threats, violence, or other actions brought to bear on someone to do something against their will	Coercion, pressure	Freedom, consent	The confession was made under duress and was not admissible in court.
73	Egregious (adj.)	Outstandingly bad or shocking	Flagrant, glaring	Minor, insignificant	The egregious error in the report was difficult to ignore.
74	Elegy (n.)	A poem or song expressing sorrow for someone who has died	Lament, dirge	Celebration, ode	The poet composed an elegy in memory of his late friend.
75	Elide (v.)	To omit or slur over in pronunciation	Omit, suppress	Emphasize, accentuate	Some dialects elide certain sounds in speech.
76	Elocution (n.)	The skill of clear and expressive speech	Articulation, pronunciation	Mumbling, incoherence	Her elocution during the presentation impressed the audience.
77	Elude (v.)	To evade or escape from, especially in a clever or skillful way	Evade, avoid	Confront, face	The fugitive managed to elude capture for several months.
78	Emaciate (v.)	To make or become extremely thin, especially from starvation or illness	Wither, shrink	Fatten, plump	The prisoner became emaciated during his long captivity.
79	Emulate (v.)	To imitate with the intent of equaling or surpassing the model	Copy, mimic	Ignore, avoid	Many artists seek to emulate the works of the great masters.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
80	Enervate (v.)	To weaken or drain of energy	Weaken, exhaust	Strengthen, invigorate	The constant stress began to enervate her both physically and mentally.
81	Enigmatic (adj.)	Mysterious and difficult to understand	Cryptic, puzzling	Clear, obvious	The enigmatic smile on her face left everyone wondering.
82	Ephemeral (adj.)	Lasting for a very short time	Transient, fleeting	Permanent, enduring	The beauty of the cherry blossoms is ephemeral and fades quickly.
83	Epiphany (n.)	A sudden and profound realization or insight	Revelation, enlightenment	Ignorance, confusion	He had an epiphany that changed his perspective on life.
84	Epitome (n.)	A perfect example of a particular quality or type	Embodiment, quintessence	Aberration, anomaly	Her elegant manners were the epitome of grace and refinement.
85	Equivocal (adj.)	Open to multiple interpretations; ambiguous	Ambiguous, unclear	Clear, straightforward	The equivocal statement left the audience in confusion.
86	Erratic (adj.)	Irregular, unpredictable	Unpredictable, inconsistent	Consistent, steady	Her erratic behavior worried her friends.
87	Esoteric (adj.)	Intended for or understood by a small, specific group; difficult to understand	Obscure, cryptic	Common, straightforward	The esoteric teachings of the ancient mystics were known to only a few.
88	Ethereal (adj.)	Extremely delicate and light; heavenly or spiritual	Delicate, airy	Earthly, tangible	The ethereal music created a serene atmosphere.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
89	Euphony (n.)	Pleasant, harmonious sound	Melody, harmony	Cacophony, discord	The euphony of the birdsong filled the morning air.
90	Exacerbate (v.)	To make a situation or problem worse	Aggravate, worsen	Alleviate, improve	His comments only served to exacerbate the already tense situation.
91	Exalt (v.)	To praise or glorify	Extol, laud	Criticize, condemn	The poet's verses exalt the beauty of nature.
92	Exemplar (n.)	A typical or excellent example	Model, paradigm	Deviation, anomaly	The ancient manuscript is considered an exemplar of calligraphy.
93	Exhort (v.)	To strongly encourage or urge someone to do something	Encourage, persuade	Discourage, dissuade	The coach would often exhort his players to give their best effort.
94	Extol (v.)	To praise highly	Laud, acclaim	Criticize, condemn	The teacher would extol the virtues of hard work to her students.
95	Facetious (adj.)	Treating serious issues with deliberately inappropriate humor	Sarcastic, humorous	Serious, solemn	His facetious comments lightened the mood during the tense meeting.
96	Fallow (adj.)	Inactive, unused	Idle, dormant	Active, productive	The field remained fallow for the season.
97	Fastidious (adj.)	Very attentive to detail; difficult to please	Meticulous, particular	Careless, sloppy	Her fastidious nature made her an excellent editor.
98	Fatuous (adj.)	Silly and pointless, lacking good sense	Foolish, absurd	Sensible, intelligent	His fatuous remarks were met with bemused laughter.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
99	Fervent (adj.)	Passionate and enthusiastic	Enthusiastic, ardent	Apathetic, indifferent	She held a fervent belief in the importance of education.
100	Fiasco (n.)	A complete failure or disaster	Debacle, catastrophe	Success, triumph	The event turned into a fiasco due to poor planning.
101	Flout (v.)	To openly disregard a rule, law, or convention	Defy, disobey	Obey, adhere	He chose to flout the school's dress code.
102	Foible (n.)	A minor weakness or flaw in character	Weakness, shortcoming	Strength, virtue	His foible was an excessive love of chocolate.
103	Foment (v.)	To instigate or stir up undesirable actions or feelings	Incite, provoke	Suppress, calm	The agent tried to foment discord among the rival factions.
104	Garrulous (adj.)	Excessively talkative, especially about trivial matters	Talkative, chatty	Quiet, reserved	Her garrulous nature made it hard to get a word in edgewise.
105	Gratuitous (adj.)	Given or done free of charge; unnecessary or uncalled for	Free, complimentary	Necessary, justified	The gratuitous violence in the movie shocked some viewers.
106	Gregarious (adj.)	Sociable and fond of company	Sociable, outgoing	Unsociable, introverted	His gregarious personality made him the life of the party.
107	Harangue (n.) (v.)	A lengthy and passionate speech (v.) To deliver a lengthy and forceful speech	Diatribes, tirade	Praise, compliment	He delivered a harangue against the government's policies.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
108	Hermetic (adj.)	Airtight or impervious to external influences; often used metaphorically to describe a highly protected or sealed-off environment	Sealed, airtight	Open, accessible	The bunker was hermetic, protecting its inhabitants from external threats.
109	Heterogeneous (adj.)	Diverse in character or content	Diverse, varied	Homogeneous, uniform	The heterogeneous group brought a variety of perspectives to the discussion.
110	Histrionic (adj.)	Overly theatrical or melodramatic in character or style	Dramatic, theatrical	Subdued, understated	Her histrionic reaction to the news drew attention from everyone.
111	Hypothetical (adj.)	Based on or involving a hypothesis; a supposition or assumption made for the sake of argument or further investigation	Speculative, theoretical	Actual, real	The experiment explores the hypothetical scenario of time travel.
112	Iconoclast (n.)	A person who attacks or criticizes established beliefs, customs, or institutions	Rebel, dissenter	Conformist, traditionalist	The artist was known as an iconoclast, challenging artistic norms.
113	Idyllic (adj.)	Extremely happy, peaceful, or picturesque	Picturesque, tranquil	Chaotic, distressing	The small village had an idyllic charm that attracted tourists.
114	Ignoble (adj.)	Not honorable in character or purpose	Dishonorable, base	Noble, honorable	His ignoble actions tarnished his reputation.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
115	Immutable (adj.)	Unchanging over time; unalterable	Unchangeable, unvarying	Changeable, mutable	The laws of physics are considered immutable principles.
116	Impassive (adj.)	Not showing emotion; calm; stoic	Stoic, expressionless	Emotional, passionate	His impassive demeanor made it difficult to gauge his feelings.
117	Impecunious (adj.)	Having little or no money; penniless	Penniless, impoverished	Wealthy, affluent	The impecunious artist struggled to make ends meet.
118	Impetuous (adj.)	Acting or done quickly without thought or care; impulsive	Impulsive, rash	Cautious, deliberate	Her impetuous decision led to unintended consequences.
119	Ineffable (adj.)	Too great or extreme to be expressed or described in words	Indescribable, inexpressible	Expressible, describable	The beauty of the sunset was ineffable.
120	Inexorable (adj.)	Impossible to stop or prevent	Inevitable, unstoppable	Avoidable, preventable	The inexorable march of time cannot be halted.
121	Infallible (adj.)	Incapable of making mistakes or being wrong	Unerring, flawless	Fallible, imperfect	Some believe that the Pope is infallible in matters of doctrine.
122	Ingenuous (adj.)	Innocent, naive, and honest	Candid, straightforward	Deceitful, cunning	His ingenuous smile won the hearts of those around him.
123	Inimical (adj.)	Harmful, hostile, or unfriendly	Hostile, antagonistic	Friendly, benign	The harsh weather was inimical to outdoor activities.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
124	Innocuous (adj.)	Not harmful or offensive	Harmless, inoffensive	Harmful, offensive	The comment may have been annoying, but it was innocuous.
125	Insidious (adj.)	Proceeding in a gradual, subtle way with harmful effects	Sly, stealthy	Obvious, overt	The disease had an insidious onset, making it hard to detect.
126	Intransigent (adj.)	Unwilling or refusing to change one's views or agree about something	Stubborn, uncompromising	Flexible, accommodating	The intransigent leaders could not reach a consensus.
127	Inundate (v.)	To overwhelm with a large amount of something	Flood, deluge	Drain, empty	The office was inundated with work during the busy season.
128	Irascible (adj.)	Easily angered or prone to anger	Quick-tempered, irritable	Calm, composed	His irascible nature made it difficult to work with him at times.
129	Juxtapose (v.)	To place or deal with close together for contrasting effect	Compare, contrast	Separate, disconnect	The artist juxtaposed vibrant colors in the painting.
130	Laconic (adj.)	Using very few words; brief and to the point	Concise, terse	Wordy, verbose	His laconic responses left little room for further discussion.
131	Lambaste (v.)	To criticize or reprimand severely	Berate, scold	Praise, compliment	The manager lambasted the employee for the mistake.
132	Lampoon (v.)	To publicly criticize or ridicule in a humorous way	Satirize, mock	Praise, commend	The satirical cartoonist often lampooned politicians.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
133	Languid (adj.)	Lacking energy or vitality; slow and relaxed	Listless, lethargic	Energetic, lively	The warm summer afternoon left everyone feeling languid.
134	Languorous (adj.)	Pleasantly lazy and lacking energy	Relaxed, dreamy	Energetic, active	They spent a languorous day by the beach, soaking up the sun.
135	Libertine (n.)	Someone who lives without moral restraints, especially in pursuit of pleasure	Hedonist, debaucher	Moral, virtuous	The libertine's lifestyle raised eyebrows in the conservative community.
136	Limpid (adj.)	Clear and transparent, both literally and figuratively	Clear, transparent	Cloudy, murky	The limpid water of the mountain stream was inviting for a swim.
137	Loquacious (adj.)	Talkative, chatty, and inclined to talk a lot	Talkative, garrulous	Reserved, silent	Her loquacious nature made her a great conversationalist.
138	Lugubrious (adj.)	Extremely sad or mournful	Mournful, melancholy	Cheerful, joyful	The lugubrious music added a somber tone to the film.
139	Machination (n.)	A clever and often evil scheme or plot	Scheme, conspiracy	Honesty, transparency	The villain's machination to take over the city was thwarted by the hero.
140	Malingering (v.)	To pretend to be ill or avoid work or responsibilities	Feign, pretend	Work, fulfill	Some students would try to malingering to avoid exams.
141	Malingerer (n.)	A person who pretends to be sick to avoid work or responsibilities	Slacker, shirker	Hard worker, responsible individual	The malingerer feigned illness to skip a day of work.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
142	Martinet (n.)	A person who demands strict adherence to rules	Taskmaster, disciplinarian	Lenient, permissive	The coach was known as a martinet, pushing the team to their limits.
143	Maudlin (adj.)	Excessively sentimental or emotional	Sentimental, tearful	Unemotional, composed	The maudlin farewell speech brought tears to everyone's eyes.
144	Maverick (n.)	A person who shows independence of thought and action	Nonconformist, individualist	Conformist, follower	The maverick artist broke all conventions in his unique artwork.
145	Mawkish (adj.)	Overly sentimental and cloying	Sentimental, maudlin	Unsweetened, unsentimental	The mawkish love letter made her cringe with its excessive sweetness.
146	Mellifluous (adj.)	Having a pleasant and flowing sound, often used for voices	Harmonious, melodious	Discordant, harsh	Her mellifluous voice soothed the audience during the concert.
147	Mendacity (n.)	Untruthfulness, the quality of lying	Deceit, falsehood	Honesty, truthfulness	The mendacity of the witness was evident during the cross-examination.
148	Mendacious (adj.)	Lying, especially habitually	Deceitful, untruthful	Truthful, honest	The mendacious politician was caught in a web of lies.
149	Mercurial (adj.)	Unpredictable, changing easily and frequently	Volatile, capricious	Steady, consistent	Her mercurial mood swings left her friends bewildered.
150	Misanthrope (n.)	A person who dislikes or distrusts other people	Cynic, recluse	Optimist, socialite	The misanthrope preferred the company of books over people.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
151	Miscreant (n.)	A person who behaves badly or breaks the law	Wrongdoer, delinquent	Law-abiding citizen, virtuous person	The miscreant was caught stealing from the store.
152	Modish (adj.)	Fashionable and stylish	Trendy, chic	Outdated, unfashionable	Her modish attire always drew attention at the party.
153	Mordant (adj.)	Sharply critical, especially in a humorous way	Sarcastic, biting	Complimentary, praising	The mordant humor of the comedian left the audience in stitches.
154	Mores (n.)	The customs and conventions of a group or society	Traditions, norms	Anomalies, deviations	Understanding the mores of a culture is essential when traveling abroad.
155	Motif (n.)	A recurring or central theme in a book or work of art; a design element or pattern	Theme, pattern	Irregularity, randomness	The motif of love and sacrifice runs throughout the novel.
156	Myopic (adj.)	Shortsighted, both literally and figuratively	Narrow-minded, nearsighted	Farsighted, visionary	The myopic decision to cut costs resulted in long-term losses for the company.
157	Nadir (n.)	The lowest or worst point	Rock bottom, bottommost	Zenith, peak	His career hit the nadir when he lost his job and home.
158	Nebulous (adj.)	Unclear, vague, or hazy	Ambiguous, indistinct	Clear, definite	The nebulous concept of time travel has intrigued scientists for centuries.
159	Neophyte (n.)	A beginner or someone who is new to something	Novice, rookie	Expert, veteran	As a neophyte in the kitchen, he burned the dinner.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
160	Nettlesome (adj.)	Causing annoyance or difficulty	Irritating, vexing	Pleasant, easygoing	Dealing with the nettlesome coworker became a daily challenge.
161	Nexus (n.)	A connection between things; a connected group; a central point or place	Link, connection	Disconnection, isolation	The internet serves as a nexus for global communication.
162	Noisome (adj.)	Very unpleasant or disgusting, especially in smell	Foul, putrid	Pleasant, aromatic	The noisome odor from the garbage bin filled the room.
163	Nonplussed (adj.)	So surprised and confused that one is unsure of how to react	Baffled, bewildered	Confident, composed	He was nonplussed by the unexpected turn of events.
164	Noxious (adj.)	Harmful, poisonous, or very unpleasant	Toxic, injurious	Beneficial, harmless	The noxious fumes from the factory posed a threat to the environment.
165	Nutritive (adj.)	Relating to or providing nutrition	Nourishing, alimentary	Unhealthy, empty	The nutritive value of the meal was essential for the athlete's recovery.
166	Obfuscate (v.)	To make unclear, to make confusing	Confound, obscure	Clarify, elucidate	The politician tried to obfuscate the issue with complex jargon.
167	Obsequious (adj.)	Excessively attentive and obedient	Subservient, sycophantic	Independent, assertive	The obsequious assistant never questioned the boss's decisions.
168	Obviate (v.)	To make unnecessary; to prevent from happening	Avoid, eliminate	Necessitate, require	Proper planning can obviate potential problems in the future.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
169	Oeuvre (n.)	All the works of a particular writer, artist, etc.	Body of work, portfolio	Lack of work, inactivity	The retrospective showcased the artist's oeuvre over the years.
170	Officious (adj.)	Annoyingly assertive in offering advice, help, etc.	Meddlesome, interfering	Discreet, unobtrusive	The officious neighbor constantly offered unsolicited advice.
171	Ostentatious (adj.)	Intended to attract notice and impress others	Showy, flamboyant	Modest, unpretentious	Her ostentatious display of wealth included a fleet of luxury cars.
172	Panacea (n.)	A cure-all	Remedy, elixir	Problem, ailment	Some people view exercise as a panacea for various health issues.
173	Panache (n.)	A stylish, lively, and confident manner	Flair, verve	Dullness, modesty	His performance had a panache that captivated the audience.
174	Paradigm (n.)	A typical example or model for something; an underlying framework or set of guiding principles	Model, exemplar	Deviation, anomaly	The new invention became a paradigm for efficient energy use.
175	Paragon (n.)	A model of excellence or perfection	Epitome, ideal	Mediocrity, flaw	Her dedication to her work made her a paragon of professionalism.
176	Parlay (v.)	To use or develop something to get another thing of greater value	Leverage, exploit	Abandon, squander	She managed to parlay her early success into a thriving career.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
177	Parochial (adj.)	Limited in area, scope, or outlook	Narrow-minded, insular	Broad-minded, cosmopolitan	His parochial mindset hindered his ability to appreciate other cultures.
178	Parsimonious (adj.)	Extremely unwilling to spend money or use resources	Stingy, frugal	Generous, extravagant	His parsimonious habits allowed him to save a substantial amount of money.
179	Pastiche (n.)	A varied mix; an artistic work that imitates earlier work	Collage, imitation	Original, innovation	The film was a pastiche of classic Hollywood genres.
180	Patronage (n.)	Money and support given to an artist, business, etc.	Sponsorship, backing	Neglect, disapproval	The artist's success was largely due to the patronage of a wealthy collector.
181	Paucity (n.)	A very small or insufficient quantity	Scarcity, dearth	Abundance, plenty	The paucity of available resources made the project challenging.
182	Peccadillo (n.)	A minor offense	Misdeed, indiscretion	Felony, crime	His occasional peccadilloes were overlooked by his friends.
183	Pedestrian (adj.)	Ordinary and boring	Commonplace, mundane	Exceptional, extraordinary	The pedestrian design of the building did not stand out.
184	Penury (n.)	Extreme poverty	Destitution, indigence	Affluence, wealth	The author's early years were marked by penury and hardship.
185	Perfidious (adj.)	Disloyal and untrustworthy	Treacherous, deceitful	Faithful, loyal	The perfidious friend betrayed their trust for personal gain.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
186	Perfunctory (adj.)	Done with little effort or interest	Routine, mechanical	Thorough, diligent	His perfunctory apology did not seem sincere.
187	Pernicious (adj.)	Very harmful, especially in a gradual or not easily noticed way	Destructive, detrimental	Beneficial, harmless	The pernicious effects of the addictive substance were not immediately apparent.
188	Petulant (adj.)	Childishly sulky and irritable	Irritable, peevish	Patient, composed	The petulant child threw a tantrum when denied a toy.
189	Philistine (n.)	A person who does not care about or understand culture, art, etc.	Uncultured person, ignoramus	Cultured individual, intellectual	The philistine had no interest in attending art exhibitions.
190	Phlegmatic (adj.)	Not easily excited or upset	Calm, composed	Excitable, volatile	His phlegmatic demeanor made him a reliable team leader.
191	Polemic (n.)	A strong written or spoken attack on or defense of an opinion, idea, or person	Controversial essay, diatribe	Conciliatory statement, praise	Her polemic against government policies was widely debated.
192	Polemical (adj.)	Expressing a strong attack on or defense of an opinion, idea, or person	Controversial, argumentative	Agreeable, diplomatic	The polemical article stirred up heated discussions.
193	Polymath (n.)	A person with great knowledge of numerous subjects	Renaissance person, scholar	Novice, ignoramus	Leonardo da Vinci is often described as a polymath due to his diverse talents.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
194	Ponderous (adj.)	Slow and heavy, especially boring or clumsy because of those qualities	Cumbersome, laborious	Agile, nimble	The ponderous lecture put most of the audience to sleep.
195	Portend (v.)	To be a sign of something to come	Predict, foretell	Conceal, hide	The dark clouds portend a storm on the horizon.
196	Prescient (adj.)	Able to predict the future	Prophetic, foresighted	Unpredictable, unaware	Her prescient vision of the market trends saved her from financial loss.
197	Prescience (n.)	The ability to predict future events	Foreknowledge, clairvoyance	Ignorance, hindsight	His uncanny prescience allowed him to make wise investments.
198	Prevaricate (v.)	To speak in a noncommittal way to avoid the truth	Evade, equivocate	Confess, disclose	The politician tended to prevaricate when asked about controversial issues.
199	Probity (n.)	Integrity, honesty, and strong morals	Rectitude, virtue	Dishonesty, corruption	The CEO's probity in business dealings was widely respected.
200	Profligate (adj.)	Extremely wasteful or immoral	Extravagant, reckless	Frugal, responsible	His profligate spending habits left him in financial ruin.
201	Puerile (adj.)	Childishly silly	Immature, juvenile	Mature, sophisticated	His puerile jokes didn't impress the adults in the room.
202	Pugnacious (adj.)	Eager to fight or argue	Combative, bellicose	Peaceful, conciliatory	His pugnacious attitude often led to conflicts with his peers.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
203	Punctilious (adj.)	Showing great attention to detail or correct behavior	Meticulous, precise	Negligent, careless	Her punctilious nature made her an excellent editor.
204	Quash (v.)	To put an end to	Suppress, quell	Allow, permit	The authorities moved to quash the protests before they escalated.
205	Quiescent (adj.)	Inactive, at rest	Dormant, motionless	Active, dynamic	The volcano had been quiescent for centuries before erupting.
206	Quixotic (adj.)	Foolishly idealistic	Romantic, impractical	Realistic, pragmatic	His quixotic dreams of solving world hunger faced many challenges.
207	Quotidian (adj.)	Ordinary; occurring every day	Everyday, routine	Extraordinary, rare	His quotidian routine included a morning jog and coffee.
208	Raconteur (n.)	A skilled storyteller	Narrator, storyteller	Bore, non- storyteller	As a raconteur, he could captivate an audience with his tales.
209	Rankle (v.)	To cause long-lasting anger or annoyance	Irritate, fester	Soothe, appease	The unfair treatment continued to rankle him for years.
210	Rapacious (adj.)	Aggressively greedy	Avaricious, covetous	Generous, selfless	The rapacious landlord hiked the rent without reason.
211	Recalcitrant (adj.)	Stubbornly resistant to authority or control	Defiant, rebellious	Compliant, obedient	The recalcitrant student refused to follow the school's rules.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
212	Recondite (adj.)	Not well-known; hard to understand	Obscure, esoteric	Simple, straightforward	His recondite theories were challenging for most people to grasp.
213	Rectitude (n.)	Honesty and moral correctness	Integrity, uprightness	Dishonesty, immorality	His rectitude in financial matters earned him trust.
214	Relegate (v.)	To assign to an inferior or insignificant position, place, etc.	Demote, downgrade	Promote, elevate	She felt unfairly relegated to a less important role.
215	Replete (adj.)	Full or well-supplied with something	Abundant, overflowing	Empty, devoid	The buffet was replete with a variety of delicious dishes.
216	Repudiate (v.)	To refuse to accept; to reject	Deny, disavow	Accept, embrace	He chose to repudiate the offer, finding it unacceptable.
217	Restive (adj.)	Unable to stay still or be patient, restless	Agitated, fidgety	Calm, composed	The restive crowd grew impatient while waiting for the event to start.
218	Rife (adj.)	Common, frequent, or widespread, especially of something undesirable	Pervasive, prevalent	Rare, uncommon	Rumors of layoffs were rife in the company.
219	Rote (adj.)	Learned or memorized through repetition, often without understanding	Mechanical, robotic	Creative, thoughtful	He recited the poem by rote without truly comprehending its meaning.
220	Sage (n.)	A very wise person	Wise person, scholar	Fool, simpleton	The sage offered valuable advice based on years of experience.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
221	Salutary (adj.)	Beneficial, especially to health	Healthful, advantageous	Harmful, detrimental	The doctor prescribed a salutary diet for his patient's recovery.
222	Sanctimonious (adj.)	Acting morally superior	Self-righteous, hypocritical	Humble, sincere	Her sanctimonious attitude made it hard to relate to her.
223	Sanctimony (n.)	The act of behaving as if one is morally superior to others	Hypocrisy, self-righteousness	Sincerity, humility	His sanctimony about environmental issues was irritating.
224	Sanction (v.)	To permit or officially approve of	Approve, endorse	Forbid, prohibit	The committee decided to sanction the new project.
225	Sanguine (adj.)	Optimistic, especially in a bad situation	Positive, hopeful	Pessimistic, gloomy	She remained sanguine despite the challenging circumstances.
226	Savant (n.)	A person of great learning, a scholar	Scholar, expert	Novice, amateur	He was considered a savant in the field of mathematics.
227	Sedulous (adj.)	Showing careful and persistent effort	Diligent, assiduous	Negligent, lazy	Her sedulous approach to research yielded impressive results.
228	Seismic (adj.)	Relating to earthquakes; enormous in size or effect	Earth-shaking, cataclysmic	Minor, insignificant	The seismic activity in the region led to structural damage.
229	Sententious (adj.)	Excessively moralizing, preachy	Moralistic, didactic	Humble, unpreachy	His sententious speeches tended to irritate the audience.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
230	Serendipity (n.)	Unexpected good luck	Fortune, luck	Misfortune, bad luck	Their serendipity in finding the rare artifact was astounding.
231	Serpentine (adj.)	Curving or winding like a snake (literal or figurative); overly complicated	Twisting, winding	Straight, direct	The serpentine river meandered through the lush forest.
232	Sophistic (adj.)	Seemingly valid but actually invalid	Deceptive, specious	Valid, genuine	The salesperson's sophistic claims were later exposed as false.
233	Soporific (adj.)	Causing sleep or drowsiness	Sleep-inducing, sedative	Stimulating, awakening	The soporific effect of the lullaby put the baby to sleep.
234	Staid (adj.)	Serious and sedate, especially in a boring and old-fashioned way	Dignified, restrained	Lively, unconventional	The staid atmosphere at the formal event felt a bit dull.
235	Stalwart (adj.)	Loyal and dependable; strong and sturdy	Resolute, unwavering	Unreliable, feeble	She remained a stalwart friend through thick and thin.
236	Stultify (v.)	To cause to be slow, unenthusiastic, or blunted	Stifle, suppress	Inspire, invigorate	The repetitive tasks began to stultify the once-enthusiastic workers.
237	Surfeit (n.)	An excessive amount	Overabundance, glut	Deficiency, shortage	The surfeit of choices made it difficult to decide.
238	Swathe (n.)	A large strip or area, especially of land	Expanse, stretch	Fragment, portion	The swathe of farmland extended as far as the eye could see.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
239	Taciturn (adj.)	Not talkative	Reserved, reticent	Talkative, garrulous	His taciturn nature made it hard to engage in conversation.
240	Tawdry (adj.)	Showy but of low quality; immoral or distasteful	Gaudy, garish	Elegant, tasteful	The tawdry decorations in the store were unappealing.
241	Tendentious (adj.)	Favoring a particular point of view, especially a controversial one; biased	Partial, one-sided	Unbiased, impartial	The tendentious article clearly favored one political group.
242	Timorous (adj.)	Fearful	Timid, apprehensive	Fearless, bold	His timorous nature held him back from taking risks.
243	Titular (adj.)	Having a title but no real power or responsibilities; mentioned in the title (of a character or thing that a book, film, etc., is named after)	Nominal, in name only	Actual, functional	Though she held the titular position, she had little authority.
244	Torpor (n.)	A state of mental and physical inactivity, extreme sluggishness	Lethargy, apathy	Vigor, alertness	The heat-induced torpor made it challenging to get any work done.
245	Tractable (adj.)	Easy to manage, control, or deal with	Obedient, manageable	Unmanageable, unruly	The well-trained dog was highly tractable and responsive to commands.
246	Trappings (n.)	The visible signs of something; the objects, possessions, or features	Accessories, accouterments	Bareness, simplicity	The trappings of his wealth were evident in his luxurious lifestyle.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
		typically associated with a situation, role, etc.
247	Trope (n.)	A common or overused theme	Cliché, convention	Originality, innovation	The love triangle is a well-known trope in romantic novels.
248	Truculent (adj.)	Quickly angered and eager to argue; aggressively argumentative	Belligerent, combative	Peaceful, conciliatory	His truculent response to criticism escalated the argument.
249	Tyro (n.)	A beginner	Novice, neophyte	Expert, veteran	As a tyro in the world of cooking, she was eager to learn new recipes.
250	Ubiquitous (adj.)	Present everywhere	Omnipresent, pervasive	Rare, scarce	Smartphones have become ubiquitous in our daily lives.
251	Umbrage (n.)	Offense, a feeling of annoyance	Resentment, displeasure	Approval, delight	He took umbrage at the comment and walked away in anger.
252	Upbraid (v.)	To criticize severely, to scold	Rebuke, reprimand	Praise, commend	The coach had to upbraid the team for their poor performance.
253	Vapid (adj.)	Boring because showing no intelligence or imagination	Dull, insipid	Exciting, vibrant	The vapid conversation left everyone uninterested.
254	Venal (adj.)	Willing to behave dishonestly for money, corrupt	Corruptible, unscrupulous	Honest, virtuous	The venal politician was involved in numerous bribery scandals.

Number	Word (Part of Speech)	Meaning	Synonym	Antonym	Sentence
255	Verisimilitude (n.)	The quality of seeming true or real	Realism, authenticity	Falseness, artificiality	The film's verisimilitude made the viewers feel like they were in the story.
256	Verve (n.)	Energy and enthusiasm	Vigor, vitality	Lethargy, apathy	Her verve and passion for the project were contagious.
257	Vitiate (v.)	To make defective or ineffective	Spoil, corrupt	Improve, enhance	The tampered ingredients would vitiate the entire dish.
258	Vituperation (n.)	Angry and abusive criticism	Censure, condemnation	Praise, commendation	He responded to her proposal with vituperation, which was uncalled for.
259	Yoke (n.)	Something oppressive or burdensome; a tie or link	Bond, connection	Freedom, liberation	The yoke of financial debt weighed heavily on his shoulders.
260	Zephyr (n.)	A gentle, mild breeze	Breeze, gust	Gale, storm	The zephyr on the beach provided relief from the heat.
264	Zest (n.)	Great enthusiasm and energy	Gusto, fervor	Apathy, indifference	Her zest for life was evident in her adventurous spirit.
265	Zeugma (n.)	A figure of speech in which a word applies to multiple parts of the sentence	Trope, figure of speech	Literal language	In the sentence, "She stole my heart and my wallet," "stole" is an example of zeugma.
266	Ziggurat (n.)	A stepped pyramid, especially one from ancient Mesopotamia	Pyramid, temple	Flat structure	The ziggurat was a symbol of religious importance in ancient civilizations.

[illegible]